Richard Kleindienst has previously acknowledged to Deputy Attorney General Kevin Maroney a conversation with Senator Eastland and John Mitchell with respect to the Hunt case. According to Kleindienst, he and Mitchell went to Eastland's office on another matter and were advised by Eastland that he had just met with Bunker Hunt. Eastland acknowledged his close personal friendship with Bunker Hunt and requested an assurance from Mitchell and Kleindienst that Bunker would be fairly treated and would not be harassed just because he was a Hunt. Kleindienst stated that both he and Mitchell assured Senator Eastland that the Hunts would be treated fairly by the Department of Justice, but denied that there was any agreement entered into at that time or that any specific conditions were placed upon their assurances to Eastland.

You are further requested to inquire of Mr. Kleindienst if he has in his possession or has access to any records kept by his former secretaries and other secretaries in the Department of Justice in Washington, D.C., which reflect all incoming phone calls and all appointments for the period Mr. Kleindienst was Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General of the United States.

If you desire any further information or have any questions regarding this request, please contact Departmental attorneys [redacted] or [redacted] 187-4441 or 187-4440.
